

SECTION -B

(Short Answer Type Questions)

Question Nos. 1 to 20 are Short Answer Type. Answer any 10 questions. Each question carries 2 marks: $10 \times 2 = 20$

1. Write a short paragraph on any one of the following:

a) Use of Internet

b) My ambition.

a) Use of Internet

The internet is used for communication, entertainment, online shopping, education, and accessing information through various applications and services like email, social media, search engines, streaming, and banking. It allows users to connect globally, share data, and perform a wide range of personal and professional tasks remotely.

6. What lesson did Nehru derive from the mountains?

Ans- From the mountains, Nehru derived a sense of hope, strength, and the enduring, inspiring power of nature to remain strong in adversity. He found solace and wisdom in their majestic presence, which provided him with a connection to the natural world and a much-needed sense of freedom during his imprisonment.

7. What did Nehru do when the puppy fell ill?

Ans- She gave a shock of Nehru. He nursed her with great care and sometimes he would get up a dozen times in the night to look after her.

8. What was Nalanda famous for in the past?

Ans- In the past, Nalanda was famous as the Nalanda Mahavihara, a renowned Buddhist monastic university and one of the world's earliest centers of learning.

9. How was the Nalanda University founded?

Ans- The ancient Nalanda University was founded by the Gupta Emperor "Kumaragupta" around 427 CE, transforming a site that was once a mango orchard into a magnificent Buddhist monastic university.

10. Why did the cyclist ring the bell in the story "A Snake in the Grass" ?

Ans- In R. K. Narayan's "A Snake in the Grass," the cyclist rang the bell and shouted to warn the family inside the bungalow that a large cobra had just entered their compound.

11. The snake-charmer looked helplessly. Why?

Ans- The snake-charmer looked helplessly about because they had lost the snake or could not find it in the area

12. What does the expression "Where knowledge is free" mean?

Ans- The expression "Where knowledge is free" means a society where education and information are freely accessible to everyone, regardless of their class, caste, gender, or other social barriers.

13. What does 'the narrow domestic walls' refer to in the poem "Where the Mind is without Fear"?

Ans- the social, cultural, and communal boundaries like caste, religion, nationality, and prejudices that divide people and limit their freedom, understanding, and unity.

14. What does true love do when it finds options ?

Ans- True love fosters mutual growth, unwavering commitment, deep understanding, and unconditional acceptance, leading the partners to support each other's dreams and choices rather than abandoning them when faced with new opportunities or challenges.

(Long Answer Type Questions)

21. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

a) To whom did the farmer take the golden eggs laid by the swan?

Ans- The farmer sold the golden eggs at the market

b) What thought compelled the farmer to kill the swan?

Ans- Ernie and Raymond had first to walk down a narrow hedgy lane for half a mile.

c) How many golden eggs did the farmer get when he cut the swan's stomach ?

Ans- The farmer got no golden eggs when he cut open the goose (or swan in your question).

d) Was the farmer living comfortably ?

Ans- Whether a farmer lives comfortably depends on several factors, including the size of their land holdings, their location, their access to non-farm income sources, and the overall agricultural economic conditions

e) What is the moral of the passage?

Ans- To find the moral of a passage, identify the underlying lesson or message the author wants to convey about life, values, or behavior

22. Write the summary of any one of the following

a) A Snake in the Grass

"A snake in the grass" refers to a deceptive person who appears friendly but is actually an enemy or someone who betrays you. It describes someone untrustworthy who harbors hidden malice or harmful intentions. The phrase is an idiom, and it originates from a metaphor about a poisonous snake concealed in tall grass, waiting to strike.

23. Write the summary of any one of the following:

a) The Marriage of True Minds

"The marriage of true minds" refers to the idea that genuine love is a deep, unwavering emotional and intellectual bond between two people that transcends physical or situational obstacles, making their connection unbreakable and constant, even when times are tough.

25. Write a note on the importance of learning English language.

Ans- Global Communication: English is the most widely spoken second language globally, making it a bridge language that connects people from different cultures. Proficiency in English enables individuals to communicate effectively with people from diverse backgrounds, fostering international understanding and collaboration.

bsebcareer.com